

Laszlo Zsolnai
European SPES Institute

Ethical Leadership
Indian and European Spiritual
Approaches

December 17, 2016
Antwerp Management School

Ethical Leadership: The Indian Way conference in January 9-10, 2014 in Bangalore

Contributions

Madhumita Chatterji (IFIM Business School Bangalore) and Laszlo Zsolnai (Corvinus University of Budapest):
Questions and Themes in Ethics and Leadership

Luk Bouckaert (KU Leuven): Why We Need a Spiritual-Based Theory of Leadership?

Laszlo Zsolnai (Corvinus University of Budapest):
Responsible Leadership and Reasonable Action

Sharda Nandram (Nyenrode Business University) and Ankur Joshi (Management Development Institute, New Delhi): An Ethics of Care induced from Kautilya's Wisdom

V. Adinarayanan, V. Smrithi Rekha and D.G Sooryanarayan (Amrita University, Coimbatore): A Multidimensional View of Leadership from an Indian Perspective

Gerrit De Vylder (KU Leuven) and Hendrik Opdebeeck (University of Antwerp): Indian Spiritual Traditions – An Inspiration for Managerial Ethics in Europe

Asi Vasudeva Reddy and AVS Kamesh (KL University, Guntur, India): Integrating Servant Leadership and Ethical Leadership

C. Suriyaprakash (Jansons School of Business, Coimbatore, India): Wisdom Leadership: A Meta-Analyses of the Spiritual-Based Leadership Research Program from the Bhagavad Gita Perspective

Rita Ghesquière (KU Leuven, Belgium): Literature as a Mirror for Leadership

Gabor Kovacs and Andras Ocsai (Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary): Mindfulness and Non-Violence in Doing Business

Katalin Illes (University of Westminster, London, UK): Connectedness and Spirituality: Hindu and Christian Examples of Spiritual-Based Entrepreneurship

Madhumita Chatterji and Nitha Palakshappa (IFIM Business School, Bangalore): Going Beyond Profit – A Case Study of the CSR Initiative of Titan, Tata Group

Lakshminarasimha (IBS Bangalore, India): Spirituality and Effectiveness in Today's Workplace

Arun Raste (IDFC Limited, Mumbai): Spirituality at the Bottom of the Pyramid

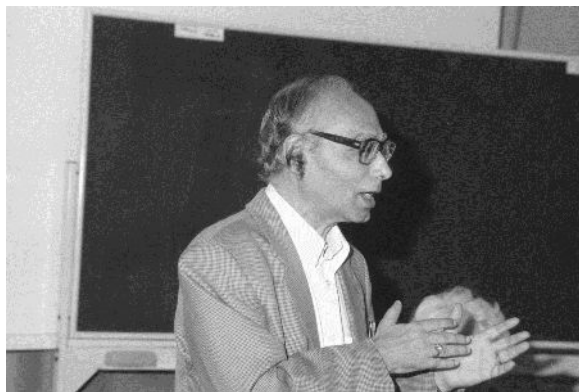

Nel Hofstra (Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands): Eco-Spirituality and Regenerative Entrepreneurship

M. L. Shrikant and Jagdish R. Rattanani (S P Jain Institute of Management & Research, Mumbai, India):
Time for Business Schools to Teach Spirituality

Sanjoy Mukherjee (Indian Institute of Management Shillong, India): Alternative Learning: A Voyage for Future Leadership

Laszlo Zsolnai (Corvinus University of Budapest) and Madhumita Chatterji (IFIM Business School, Bangalore):
Lessons for the Future for India and Europe

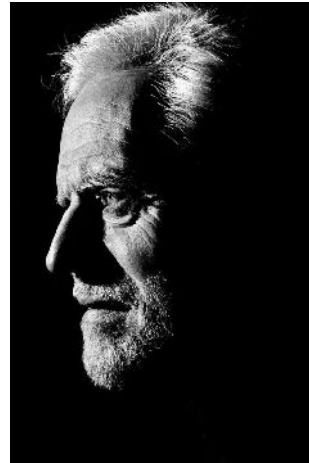

Pioneers

S.K. Chakraborty
Center for Human Values,
IIM – Calcutta

Pioneers

Peter Pruzan,
Copenhagen Business
School
and
Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Learning

Indian/Vedantic perspective “has its roots primarily in existential ontological perspectives on the very nature of reality whereby ethical competence is and always has been embodied in all sentient beings; we are all physical manifestations and agents of a divine source.”
(Pruzan 2015: 270)

India today

India today

Alternative development models are needed for India and the rest of the world.

India and Europe should embrace their own noble traditions and seek to cross-fertilize one another to foster a state of sustainability, peace and well-being. The key is to overcome the pre-existing dominantly materialistic value orientation of society and the ego-centeredness of individuals and thereby come closer to a state of transcendence and oneness.

The dialogue must go on!